PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Danny Shelton

Dear 3ABN Family,

It's hard to believe that in just a few days, we'll be coming to the end of 2018! As I look back on the past year, I want to thank the Lord and each of you for making this one of the greatest years of evangelism in 3ABN's thirty-four year history. We've received hundreds of thousands of letters, emails, phone calls, and social media contacts from people around the world who have given their hearts to Jesus Christ and joined the Seventh-day Adventist movement because of 3ABN radio and television. I'm also thankful to have a board of directors who hold fast to the mission God gave us to spread an "undiluted three angels' messages, one that would counteract the counterfeit," to a lost and dying world!

There have been tremendous changes since we started broadcasting. There are now divisions in politics and the church like I've never seen before. Brothers and sisters, I beseech you to keep your eyes focused on Jesus and His Word alone! The spiritual battle is not just outside the church. As Sister Ellen White foretold, there is more to fear from within than from without! We now have those within our church who support same-sex marriage and abortion. How can we reach out to the world and proclaim the importance of God's Sabbath and His everlasting moral law—The Ten Commandments—when many church members don't even support the sixth and seventh commandments?

Brothers and sisters,
I beseech you to keep your eyes focused on Jesus and His Word alone!

I believe we're now in the "shaking" time of earth's history, and we are praying for revival and reformation within our church as never before. But we must remember that although we're living in trying times, God is in control. We should not be discouraged; we must press forward. Jesus is coming soon and our responsibility as Seventh-day Adventists is to bring the truth to a lost and dying world. We here at 3ABN take a stand on the side of truth, and we really need your prayers and financial support to close out 2018 financially in the black! We trust that as you pray, the Holy Spirit will impress you as to what you can do, both prayerfully and financially, to join us as we continue proclaiming the everlasting gospel of Jesus Christ to the whole world.

Thank you, in advance, for joining us in this spiritual warfare. God bless!

Danny Shelton
3ABN Founder/President

JASON BRADLEY

NEW GENERAL MANAGER OF 3ABN DARE TO DREAM NETWORK

In September, Dr. Yvonne Lewis-Shelton became 3ABN Dare to Dream Network's founder/consultant, and her son Jason Bradley, took her place as the network's new general manager. Since then, he has entreated the Lord to lead in the direction the network should go, and has been rewarded with a vision and a passion he's never felt before.

"I'm blessed that I was able to work alongside my mother for nearly five years," he says, "and she's left me in a good place to carry out the mission of Dare to Dream.

I also am blessed to have her as our network consultant, so I'll continue to have access to her wealth of knowledge and experience.

"And speaking of experience, television ministry was a whole new world for me, after spending many years out of the church. In fact, I was managing a sports bar in Atlanta when my mother invited me to come up for a 3ABN annual Day of Prayer. I felt an emptiness in my heart, and having been raised in church, I knew it could only be filled by Jesus Christ. So when my mom called and said, 'Jay, I wish you would come here for a visit,' I did."

Heeding God's Call

Returning to his more than 70-hour-a-week job, all Jason could think of was what 3ABN's founder/president, Danny Shelton, had said: "When you leave, if all you can think about is 3ABN, then this is where you belong."

Jason says, "Never had anything pulled so hard on my heart, so for the first time in my life I decided to stop fighting, and surrender. Accepting Jesus Christ was the best decision I've ever made!"

This young man is passionate about sharing his love of Christ with others. "The Bible is full of people who were broken, and yet the Lord still used them in mighty ways," he exclaims. "I want each Dare to Dream viewer to know that what they did in their past is who they were, not who they are! I want to tell them, 'The Creator of the Universe wants to spend time with you. He wants a personal relationship with you. There's nothing you've ever done or said that could make Him love you any more, or any less. The devil wants you to think you've gone too far, but Romans 5:8 says that "God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." There's no greater love than that, and when you truly love someone, there's no limit to what you'll do for them."

Taking D2D to the World

"The world is starving for love," Jason continues. "They're so thirsty for the Living Water that they're dehydrated. How can we keep from giving them the messages we've been entrusted to give the world? I want Dare to Dream to continue reaching the inner cities with the gospel and practical tools for living, and I'm also passionate about prison ministry and the prison population. But while I don't want to sound greedy, I really want to reach the whole world. Dare to Dream programs focus on the total human being. Cooking, health and wellness, financial literacy, sexual purity, music, parenting, preaching, programs for offenders and ex-offenders—we offer a variety of programming because it's not just enough to go tell someone to go be a Christian. They want to know, What does being a Christian look like?

"I believe we need to share the gospel with the unchurched. There are a lot of people who don't know about Jesus—and that means that a lot of us Christians aren't doing our job effectively! The world is very vocal, and as Christians, we need to take a strong stance that requires us to be open, transparent, and vulnerable. People won't listen to us if we're not.

"Many people come and share their testimonies and the darkest times of their life with our viewers; and because they're vulnerable, people listen. They stand as shining examples of the transformative and restorative power of Christ! We all have things we struggle with, and Dare to Dream connects its viewers to the only solution that works—a growing relationship with Jesus Christ!"

We praise the Lord for Jason's dedication to his mission, and we look forward to what God has in store for Dare to Dream. ☺

3ABN'S DONATION CENTER

Precious Things for the Lord's Work

All through the years, 3ABN has never aired a telethon nor conducted any type of heavy on-air fundraising to meet our ministry needs. Instead, we've depended entirely on the Holy Spirit to move upon the hearts of those who support us through their prayers and faithful giving. But many have found another wonderful way to bless this ministry through donations of valuable items to our 3ABN Donations Department.

We're touched by our supporters' generosity every day, and our staff prays over each item, asking the Lord to ensure the best return possible, to be used to further His work.

Bruce and Tammy Chance, along with their daughter-in-law, Bethany, have worked in our 3ABN Donation Center for many years, carefully cataloging, researching, and selling valuable donated items. These have generated thousands of dollars that have been used where they are needed the most. Currently, gold and silver items, gold and diamond watches, coins, and real jewelry are very much in demand—as are some donated vehicles and RVs (see sidebar for additional items).

3ABN always sends a tax-deductible receipt for each item sold, but since not every item sells easily, we urge you to call before sending anything, so we can spare you the cost of shipping an item we can't use.

Right: Bruce, Bethany, and Tammy work hard to get the most value for your donated items.

Above: Hummel figurines are popular items and resell well. Each precious item helps further the reach of the gospel.

Our hearts are touched by the personal sacrifice you make by donating each treasured item, and surely it touches the heart of God, too. As we give Him our deepest love and willing service, He delights in pouring out His priceless gift of everlasting life! ☺

ADDITIONAL ITEMS WE CAN USE:

- platinum
- diamonds
- sterling silverware
- china
- antique glass
- Hummel figurines
- old dolls
- musical instruments
- vintage sports cards/memorabilia
- Longaberger baskets

Please call Bruce Chance at 618-627-4651 (Ext. 3078) about any item you might want to donate.

Donations of vintage Barbie dolls, sterling silver, and valuable coins generate funds for God's work.

He Found Truth And a New Church Family!

We are always thrilled when we hear from our viewers after they learn new truths on 3ABN. How exciting it is to hear about their baptism and how their new church family has welcomed them with open arms. The effect on the new believer is amazing, and when we heard from Richard Stults, we thought we'd share his story. Here's what he had to say:

An Interesting Channel

"I live in the small town of Mechanicsburg, Illinois, and one day I was watching TV and I stopped on a program that seemed interesting. In fact, the more I watched it, the more interesting it was.

"They were talking about the seventh-day Sabbath, and that was something I had never really heard."

What Got Him Excited

"When I was just a child, I'd go to Sunday School with a quarter tied in a knot in my little handkerchief. Then, later, I was saved and baptized in a Baptist church in 1979. I've been through a lot of churches in my lifetime because I just could never figure out which one I wanted to belong to!

"As I began watching 3ABN, I enjoyed some programs with Pastor John Lomacang. I also enjoyed listening to interviews with Danny Shelton, and even some of the children's shows. Those kids really can sing, you know, and they're all so intelligent and talented.

"But anyway, the thing that got me really excited about watching 3ABN was the fact that they were preaching that Saturday is the Sabbath, and when I started searching my Bible, I discovered it for myself—Saturday is the true Sabbath of the Fourth Commandment!

"When I started searching the Bible, I discovered it for myself—Saturday is the true Sabbath ...!"

Making a Call

"Finally, I was convinced, so I called 3ABN's number on my screen and asked if they could refer me to a Sabbath-keeping church. They gave me two nearby churches, and the first one

I went to was the Springfield First Seventh-day Adventist Church. I told them I watched 3ABN, and I was amazed at how friendly and receptive they were. I just loved it!"

Baptism

Richard was baptized on August 18, 2018, and says he can hardly contain his joy. "There's no church like the Seventh-day Adventist Church," he exclaims. "I can't thank 3ABN enough for their programming and how it has led me to my new church family.

"I am 80 years old, and I still work part-time as an insurance salesman because I choose to live life to its fullest. I witness to people, and I love explaining the Sabbath to other pastors. They share their ideas with me, then I show them in the Bible that the Lord blessed the Sabbath day during Creation.

"At first, keeping the Sabbath was kinda different. But every Sunday I reminded myself that 'Sunday is not the Sabbath.'

"It kinda surprised me when everyone kept saying, 'Happy Sabbath!' But when I worship on Sabbath, well, I just feel enlightened. It sorta feels like when I just get over being sick!" he mentions with a laugh.

Through It All

"I've had open heart surgery, kidney cancer and surgery, esophagus surgery, and a pacemaker installed. I've had a car burn up, hit a bridge and cracked my ribs, and even been hit by a semi-truck. However, the Lord has brought me through it all and blessed me! I want to continue to grow in my church and in my Christian life, and it's really nice to be around such a loving group of people." ☺

Come and Visit!

If you live near or visit the Springfield, Illinois, area, why not stop in and visit the Springfield First Seventh-day Adventist Church at 3300 West Jefferson Street? You're sure to find Richard, Pastor Glenn Hill, and the entire congregation eager to meet you and treat you to their hospitality! Near you there's a wonderful Seventh-day Adventist Church family just waiting for you to come through their doors!

PUMPKIN CHEESECAKE WITH CANDIED CRANBERRIES

by the Holmes Sisters

What Can I Give You, Lord?

During this holiday season, as we focus our attention on those we love, many of us spend long hours looking for that perfect gift to give as a token of our affection. It matters little whether it's something rare and precious or something carefully crafted by our own hands; we eagerly anticipate the moment when the gift is unwrapped. But how do we show our love and gratitude to our Best Friend, the One who loves us the most and knows us the best? What gift can we give to our Savior and Lord?

Many years ago, Ellen White wrote an article in the Review and Herald magazine entitled, "Holiday Gifts" that said, "The recurring seasons, with the rich and varied blessings which they bring, the refreshing rain and the glad sunshine, every good thing we receive, attests the continuance of our Creator's gift to man.

"Shall not all these precious tokens of His love call forth a response from us in free-will offerings for His cause? Shall not our heavenly Benefactor share in the tokens of our gratitude and love?... Let us, upon the coming Christmas and New Year's festivals, not only make an offering to God of our means, but give ourselves unreservedly to Him.... The salvation of perishing souls calls for our personal effort and for our means."¹

OUR BEST GIFTS

As we count our blessings this year, we might ask ourselves, What can I give You, Lord? Proclaiming the gospel to all nations requires sacrifice and dedication, and we thank you for your faithful prayers and financial support that keep 3ABN on the air. Won't you send a special tax-deductible year-end gift today? Large or small, every gift makes a difference.
