PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Danny Shelton

Dear 3ABN Family,

My Mother used to have a saying she often repeated. It went something like this: "Sometimes, I think everyone in the world is crazy except me and thee....and sometimes even thee!" As we take a look at the world we live in, do you ever wonder if the world has gone crazy? I know I sure do.

In 1999, my Mother died, and this world is even crazier now. When I listen to the news on television and radio, I can almost hear her in my mind, repeating that phrase again and again. As Seventh-day Adventist Christians, we should never be discouraged when we see the current religious and political climate. Why? Because the Bible predicts that there will be a time of trouble like never before. Daniel 12:1 says, "And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book." (KJV)

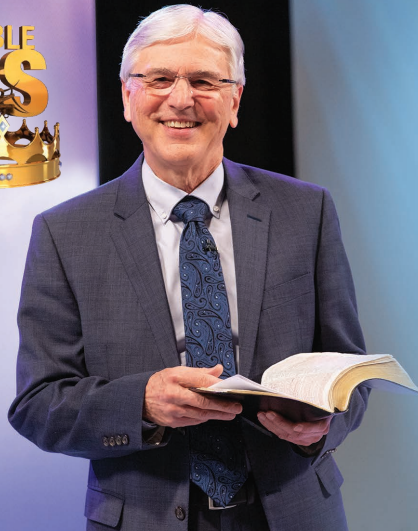

"As Seventh-day Adventist Christians, we should never be discouraged when we see the current religious and political climate."

Brothers and sisters, this is good news for the Christians of this world! When we see the world around us collapsing while evil raises its ugly head like never before, it is time that we stand up and share the Bible prophecies that God has given to His remnant church! It's not easy, neither is it popular, but it's what God has called His remnant church to do. We are called to "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19, 20, NKJV)

What a privilege to be alive in the closing moments of earth's history and to know the truth about Jesus and His end-time prophecies. Please ask the Lord what He would have you do to partner with 3ABN.

With your prayers and financial support, we can reach the world with an undiluted three angels' messages before it is forever too late!

3ABN Homecoming

FALL CAMP MEETING 2019

"Living Above the Crowd"

This month 3ABN brings you another eagerly anticipated Homecoming Camp Meeting, and we're looking forward to the hundreds of viewers and listeners who will travel from all parts of the world to attend in person. Our first sermon on opening night will be by Elder Ted N.C. Wilson, president of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, followed by Pastor Doug Batchelor, president of Amazing Facts Ministry. We asked Pastor Doug about this year's theme, "Living Above the Crowd," and this is what he says:

"In the world today, as with every other age, believers must resist the relentless pressure from society to compromise our convictions. As Christians, we are called to set our light on a hill, living in the world, reaching the world, but not allowing the values of the world to shape who we are.

"Colossians 3:2 says, 'Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth,' and this makes it clear that we must learn how to live in the world while living by the Word. We'll be drawing from several stories in the Bible as we discover how we can impact the culture for Christ."

Pastor Doug's sermons include the intriguing titles, "Resist Grasshopper Thinking," "The Touch of Transformation," "Persisting for His Presence," and "Climbing the Tree of Life," and we eagerly look forward to the spiritual blessings they will bring.

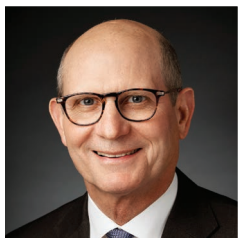

For those who can join us in person, we are happy to provide free RV, camper, and tent spaces with a nearby shower house. Just call us at 618-627-4651 to reserve your spot.

We will also be providing delicious meals prepared by Melody Caviness, programs for children of all ages, tours of our studios, and much more. It's truly a family homecoming, so whether you're enjoying it in person, or by TV or radio, we can't wait to have you with us!

For more information, including schedules and a list of local hotels in the area, please visit 3ABNCampmeeting.org.

NEW

Programs for Kids

This summer, our studios rang with laughter and excitement as kids from all over the country came together to enjoy our very first 3ABN Kids Camp and record new programs created to teach them about Jesus and how to live for Him.

The results were fantastic! “We broke records by producing more than 100 programs in four days!” says 3ABN Kids Network General Manager, Francine Bergmann. “We’ll begin airing them on Saturday, September 7, and we’re excited to begin the process of revitalizing our Kids Network!”

Danny Shelton, 3ABN Founder and President, says, “It’s great to see new children’s programs being produced. We want children everywhere to learn about Jesus, and what better way than through 3ABN Kids Camp!”

3ABN Kids Camp Bible Gems

Dig into the Bible and watch its characters come alive! Watch the Egyptian princess discover baby Moses floating in the Nile River, and see Elijah calling down fire from heaven!

It’s adventure, mysteries, and information you’ll need to play Bible Buzz!

3ABN Kids Camp Bible Buzz

Pay attention! Bible Buzz not only challenges you on your Bible knowledge, but also on how well you listened to the Bible Gem stories. Try to beat the clock on this fun and fast-paced quiz show.

3ABN Kids Camp Sing-Along

You’ll have a blast with your team as you learn new songs—and the cool hand motions to go with them! And there’s nothing better than sharing about Jesus as you teach these amazing songs to your friends, too!

3ABN Kids Camp Wall of Mystery

Here’s a program that will get your attention! Take turns with your teammates as you try to figure out where you are and what surrounds you on the video wall that you can’t see—but they can. Watch their faces, follow their clues, and think on your toes!

3ABN Kids Camp Kitchen Fun

There’s so much laughter in Miss Cinda’s kitchen as kids learn how to make Lil Italian Boats, Pumpkin Pancakes, and Cinnamon Catiedoodles! You’ll enjoy making these yummy foods, and they’re good for you, too.

3ABN Kids Camp Creation Crafts

Learning about God is fun, and you’ll enjoy using your creative talents to make amazing crafts like a Nebular Jar, Plastic Egg Fireflies, and even an I-Spy bottle! And best of all, each of these inventive crafts reflects a special Bible verse.

3ABN Kids Camp Fit Club

Have a blast as you pair up with a teammate to do noodle stretches, fast feet challenges, and develop muscle might. Who knew that exercise could be so much fun? God wants us to be healthy and happy—and here’s a great way to get there!

Shelley Quinn, 3ABN Program Development Manager, says the experience was a time of personal revival because she was in constant, earnest prayer before and during the event. “I marvel at how the hand of God directed all the details of 3ABN Kids Camp. Our schedules flowed smoothly, and the children remained happy and excited every day! My 9-year-old niece came in from Texas, and although she’s not a ‘morning person,’ she bounded out of bed each morning with enthusiasm, ready to go, again. I witnessed her spiritual growth during the event, and trust that God did the same for the other children, as well.”

Francine agrees, “Many of our campers expressed how they didn’t want Kids Camp to end because they felt the love of Jesus, so I invite ‘kids’ of all ages to watch and enjoy these new programs and receive a wonderful blessing!” ☺

It Is Well With My Soul

Many of us are familiar with the promise in Romans 8:28 that says, “And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.” But that certainly wasn’t the case with David Ortiz when he discovered a lump in his neck.

Born and raised in Delaware, David grew up attending a variety of churches. He was familiar with the Bible, but says the only time he heard the word Sabbath was in reference to the heavy metal rock band, Black Sabbath!

On the other hand, Beverly was raised in a Seventh-day Adventist home and attended Adventist schools all her life; but she became a Laodicean or “lukewarm” Christian and slowly drifted away from her faith.

The couple met and soon became best friends, later marrying and moving to a town just outside of Baltimore, Maryland. “We loved to entertain and threw large parties with lots of booze,” David says. “In fact, I insisted on having the best booze, the most expensive steaks, and the best cigars.”

Everything went well for a while, except for their arguments about the Sabbath. “Normally, he’s not a button pusher,” Beverly says, “but on this he really was. He’d tell me, ‘You’re saying that if I go to church on Tuesday, God won’t be there, right?’ And I’d answer, ‘No, I said that the special time God wants to spend with us is on the Sabbath.’ Then he’d say I was being ridiculous and it got to the point where I didn’t want to talk about it anymore.”

Something wasn’t right and Beverly’s spiritual unease increased. Finally, she began praying, “Lord, do what You need to do in our lives so we can be ready,” and within a few weeks, something did happen!

“It was Beverly’s birthday, January 19, 2018, when I found a small, walnut-sized lump on my neck just below my jaw,” David says. “My doctor thought it might be an ear infection; however, a specialist didn’t think so and ordered a CT scan. He said, ‘David, we need a biopsy, and I’m treating you for cancer until I’m proven wrong.’ That hit me hard and I immediately started drinking vodka. When the pathology results came, it was a squamous cell carcinoma at the base of my tongue with lymph node involvement. I grabbed more vodka and said, ‘Call the kids.’”

Total Surrender

David was scheduled for weeks of radiation and chemotherapy at the Milton Dance Head and Neck Center in Towson, Maryland, but says that just before his treatments began, he was standing in the shower and started crying. “I was crying so hard I couldn’t breathe!” he says. “I felt I was empty and dying, and Job 1:21 came to mind:

‘Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return there.’ I begged God for forgiveness, saying, ‘Lord, You’re the only One who can fix me. Teach me obedience and I’ll serve You every day of my life.’ Then I felt His amazing presence, and it was better than anything I’d ever felt! I told my wife, ‘I think it’s time to find a church,’ to which she answered, ‘Great idea!’ So she began looking for Adventist churches—as I looked for Sunday churches.”

After a disappointing visit to his first pick, David found a preacher on TV and asked, “Beverly, what channel is this?” She glanced over and said, “I think that’s 3ABN—an Adventist channel.”

Stunned, David turned back to the TV, knowing that if he said he liked it, she’d convince him to go to church on Saturday. Later, he found a Seventh-day Adventist church online, and as they watched a sermon, Beverly exclaimed, “I know that pastor from when I lived in Oklahoma!”

By this time, David was anxious about his pending treatment when he remembered that James 5:14 instructs the sick to call upon the elders for anointing, so the following Sabbath, they visited that Adventist church and Pastor Bill McClendon agreed to anoint him the following week. Then, a few days later, they watched a 3ABN Today program with Pastor Stephen Bohr. “They were talking about the Sabbath and I was still looking for a chance to prove my point,” David admits. “But I listened, and suddenly I clapped my hands, and exclaimed, ‘I got it! I got the Sabbath!’ Every question in my mind and heart was answered, and the Holy Spirit brought a strong conviction.”

The following day, Pastor McClendon anointed David, and he attended one more week before he was too sick to go to church. “However, I read my Bible every day, watched sermons, and even downloaded the 3ABN app on my phone so I could watch the other networks,” he says. After watching our Spring Camp Meeting, they decided to come to the Fall Homecoming, where they met nearly everyone from 3ABN.

Shortly after treatment ended, Pastor McClendon left for a new assignment, and Pastor Paulo Macena came to town. David was convinced about the Sabbath, but didn’t want to join the Church. However, he did join an early morning prayer group. “Then, last December, Pastor Macena and I talked about baptism and I offered my narrow-minded concerns,” he says, “but within minutes, he had me in total peace. So I said, ‘I want you to baptize me. How about next Sabbath?’”

David and Beverly were baptized together on her birthday—exactly one year to the day from when he discovered the cancer.

Pastor Macena is delighted. “They’re a wonderful couple!” he says. They’re eager volunteers, and always attend our weekly morning prayer meetings. In fact, just a few weeks ago, our church board elected Beverly as our head deaconess.”

David believes God used 3ABN to save his life. “Today, I’m cancer-free and I thank God for His healing. I also tell everyone about 3ABN because God is the light and we are the lampshade. It is well with my soul, and we have work to do!” ☺

Come visit the Ellicott City Seventh-day Adventist Church at 3291 Saint Johns Lane in Ellicott City, MD. They’d love to see you!

Streaming Salvation to Millions

Like a beacon of light, 3ABN's programming constantly streams into the world, bringing hope and eternal life to those who are hungry for God's truth. This stream of light multiplies through YouTube and streaming media players like Roku and mySDAtv, and now, the three angels' messages of Revelation 14 are also streaming through Amazon's Fire TV!

"This is great news," says Moses Primo, 3ABN's Director of Broadcasting and Engineering, "because according to industry reports, Amazon Fire TV already has 34 million users. They are currently the largest streaming media player, they appeal to a younger audience, and I believe they will eventually surpass the millions of views we already have each month on other streaming devices."

"Our Roku app streams millions of hours each month to an audience that is evenly divided between men and women," Moses continues, "and our viewers seem to cover every age group. They also have, on average, a college level education."

In addition to offering all of 3ABN's television and radio networks, the mySDAtv streaming media player offers viewers the great convenience of Video On Demand, allowing them to view and record any program in our current lineup to share with others!

Streaming Is Growing!

There are so many ways to stream 3ABN today—through YouTube, 3ABN's app for smartphones and tablets, and Verizon FiOS fiber optic TV. Viewers can also stream 3ABN over the Freeview HD VisionTV service in the United Kingdom, on Truli.com's Faith and Family Entertainment Network, and on our 3ABN.tv website.

"As our streaming audience grows, so do the total hours being viewed," Moses says. "We provide high-quality HD streaming 24-hours a day, all year long, so our costs are increasing, and we solicit your prayers and financial support to continue to provide hope and salvation to all our viewers and listeners."

Won't you pray and ask what the Holy Spirit would have you do to help us reach an ever-growing audience? Thank you and may God bless you!

3ABN is now available on Amazon's Fire TV and Fire TV Stick!
